Minneapolis Guitar Quartet
September 26 — Auditorium

With passion, style, and musical sophistication that borrow from the best chamber music and string quartet traditions, the Minneapolis Guitar Quartet has been recognized as one of the world's leading guitar ensembles since its founding in 1986. Their concert will include works by Purcell, Debussy, Rodrigo, Ginastera, and Piazzola.

Quattrocelli
November 7 — Auditorium

Trained in Germany, this ensemble of four classical cellists astonishes listeners by using their cellos as drums, guitars, and much more. This season, they will be performing "Cinmacelli," a program featuring original arrangements of music from the world of film. Quattrocelli captivate audiences with their energy, passion, and on-stage antics.

Noteworthy Duo
December 12 — Auditorium

Flutist Lisa Schroeder and guitarist Michael Nigro receive raves wherever they perform. Their aim is to reach a nonclassical audience, inspire the classical listener, and touch their audience with their informal interaction as well as a "noteworthy" performance. Their interest in South American music can be heard throughout their extensive flute and guitar repertoire.

Spencer Area Concert Association 2009–2010 Season — All concerts begin at 7:30 p.m.

Craicmore
February 27 — Auditorium

Craicmore is a "contemporary traditional Celtic band." They draw their words and music from the traditional music of Ireland and Scotland, with influences as diverse as the Afro Celts, Chieftains, Pogues, rock, and Australian indigenous music. The band features vocals by Nancy Johnston, with guitar, bass, Bohdran, and high-spirited flutes, whistles, and bagpipes.

Chapter 6
March 27 — Grace United Methodist Church

Chapter 6 is the only vocal ensemble to win both the International Competition of Collegiate A Cappella and the prestigious National Harmony Sweepstakes. They were featured on the seventh season of American Idol. Whether performing Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody" or their own award-winning version of The Wizard of Oz, this group is sure to delight audiences of all ages.

Project
April 24 — Grace United Methodist Church

Project is a dynamic young instrumental ensemble that thrills audiences with their energy and innovative style. By combining the classical repertoire with original compositions, Project reaches out to new audiences. Performing on beat-box flute, cello, and double bass, their sound is a fusion of classical, jazz, and world music, with elements of hip-hop and pop thrown in.
